

CMS has learned that Karol Madera obtains coerced apologies under threat, and later attempts to use them as evidence that complainants against him have submitted “unsubstantiated information” about him. Below, see correspondence between Daniel L. Jeswald, a Viet Nam war veteran and complainant in the Karol Madera hate propaganda case and Richard Brunton, webmaster of the Southgate Amateur Radio Club in the U.K.

comments: Why are you apologizing to VE7KFM? He wrote that paper. Are you saying you AGREE with Karol Madera, VE7KFM?

Hi Dan..

Unfortunately, I was forced by our club committee to take the article off and to issue an apology. ve7kfm had apparently threatened to sue over the matter and the committee panicked and I've been asked to steer clear of the whole subject. I'm afraid that my hands are now tied.

Thanks for your support though.

Regards

Thank you for your candor. This is his tactic. He can do and say whatever he likes and slander anyone he chooses. However if one counters at all then you are a jammer, etc. etc. Karol is one sick individual.

Hope you had a Merry Christmas
