I don't know who shot me. However, Andrew was on 14313 encouraging someone to shoot me, back in early December. I was not in Saanich when shot, but actually over 100 mi. distant and thought I was delivering two 4cx-5000 tubes with handles for $500 each, to a buyer. However, it turned out that I was lured into an ambush....

I was NOT in a coma, but I was knocked un-conscious diving for cover behind a concrete planter after being hit. I look a fright but am basically sound with part of an ear nicked, a slight groove down my cheek bone, a knot on my head from a leg of the planter and am deaf as a doornail in that ear. I am also not be as handsome as before, HI, but the "dueling scar" will fund a "tall story" -- and a drink or two....

Most of the confused information probably came from a hasty call to friends by my travelling companion. That is probably the leak that continued on to Mikey.... The police want to keep the story quiet/out of the media for the obvious reasons. Mike could NOT have called the hospital since he didn't know where I was. He's a BULLSHITTER as you probably know. I think he just likes to fuck around, instead of going for the throat of his enemies [and mine].... He's well past his "best before date", HI.

I'm being released from Hospital today. I'll be staying w/ an ex-Service friend at an undisclosed location [on the advice of my Police]. Thanks for your concern. But, that which does not kill you, makes you stronger.

The email above (portions redacted) was sent by Madera to a friend, who sent it to another friend and so on. We've examined the original headers and they're genuine. Predictably, we have two bullshitters in this exchange: Karol Madera and Mikey -- who can be reached for comment at the following address, or on 3,843 kHz on most nights, after 3 AM.
